Miss Tamara Kuzminichna OSIPOVA, Russian, was born on April 28, 1916 at Blagoveschensk, Siberia. She is reported to have left Russia together with her mother in 1921 and to have subsequently resided in Harbin. She arrived in Shanghai from Harbin in 1929. From October 1933 to May 1935 she was employed as a shop assistant with Maroukh's Haberdashery Store, 311-317 Kiangse Road. She left that place of employment of her own accord and was unemployed until December 1936 when she obtained the position as a bar girl at Farren's Night Club, 325 Great Western Road. In September 1937 she secured a similar position at the Palace Hotel Bar, 3 Nanking Road, and is still employed there.

In August, 1938 she was granted three weeks leave which was spent in Hongkong. It was on that occasion that she came into possession of the Affidavit issued by the local M.B.M. Consulate-General.

Miss Osipova at present resides at 118 Route des Soeurs, Apt. 14 Room 3.

There is nothing in the Municipal Police records concerning her.
